

Veterans News

Last Monday was the Maclean Vets first outing for the year. There was a limited field because some of our regulars are still away on holidays however we did welcome 2 visitors from Yamba and another from Brisbane. The event was the January monthly medal and this was won by Lee Barrington with a pretty well compiled 40 points which included 2 birdies to help his score along. Runner up, also with 40 points but beaten on a countback was Lyn Johnson . Well done Lyn, that's great golf. In 3rd place and winner of the free game was Theo Sheppard with 37. Nearest the pins were won by both Marlene and Graham Roberts on the 2nd, Mark Hemmy on the 7th, Lee Barrington on the 11th and Graham Roberts again on the 17th. Club balls went to Marlene Roberts – 35, Richard Ross –35, Ian Mcfarlane –34, Bob Harvey-34, Geoff Willis-33, and Mark Hemmy, Graham Howard and Steve Cassidy all with 32 points. Our next game is a 2 person aggregate to be played on the 22nd. Jan. You can organise your own partner or we can do it for you. For any new prospective Vets we play every fortnight and we have a shot gun start at 8.30am. Also the entry forms for the Iluka and Byron Bay open days are on the board.
